Part A - Your Personal Details

- Privacy Collection Statement

We collect the personal information you provide to us in order to enable us to record your donation and contact you in the future, including in order to inform you about promotions or activities which we think you may be interested in. We may disclose your personal information to organisations or individuals who assist us in processing your donation or where you have agreed we may disclose it. For further details, including how to access and correct your personal information, or information about JDRF's complaints handling processes, please see our Privacy Policy at www.jdrf.org.au.

The personal and medical information that you provide us for the Type 1 Challenge will be disclosed to the logistics and medical team supporting the event, for the purposes of the wellbeing and safety of all participants should a medical emergency arise.

Part B - Our Website

By accessing, browsing or using this website, which is hosted by Funraisin with their own terms (<http://www.funraisin.co/privacy-policy/>); or completing the registration process to become a participant in our event, you acknowledge that you have read this notice and agree to be bound by the Terms and Conditions set out below, as amended from time to time:

- Information on this website

Online registration for our event will result in the registered participant's name and a personal web page being made publicly available online. Contact details will not be made publicly available. Unless marked as anonymous, all online donations towards registered participants will result in the donor's name being published on the webpage of the participant they have sponsored. JDRF reserves the right to remove any objectionable or inappropriate information posted to the personal websites of registered participants. This includes text and images. JDRF believes the information on this website to be accurate and current as at the date the information was placed on this website. Any party engaged in illegal activities involving the use of the website will be subject to civil and criminal sanctions and prosecution.

- Amendments to these Terms and Conditions

JDRF may amend these Terms and Conditions from time to time and any amendment will become effective immediately. Your continued use of the Website after amendment constitutes an agreement to abide by and be bound by those Terms and Conditions, as amended.

- Products and Services

Nothing in these Terms and Conditions excludes or limits the application of any provision of any statute (including the Trade Practices Act 1974) where to do so would contravene that statute or cause any part of these Terms and Conditions to be void.

Subject to the preceding paragraph:

- JDRF does not warrant that any products or services advertised on the website will be available; and
- JDRF excludes all implied conditions and warranties except any implied condition or warranty the exclusion of which would contravene any statute or cause any part of these Terms and Conditions to be void.

It is a violation of the law to place orders under a false name or with a fraudulently obtained credit card. Fraudulent ordering will be prosecuted to the fullest extent the law allows.

Part C - Our Event: Type 1 Challenge

- Conditions of entry

To participate in the Type 1 Challenge each person must register online, and pay a non-refundable registration. Once the participant has banked the minimum fundraising target, they will be eligible to participate in the Type 1 Challenge.

Registrants must be over the age of 18 in order to participate in the Type 1 Challenge.

- Registration fees

A non-refundable registration fee may apply to enter the Type 1 Challenge. The registration fee is not a donation to JDRF. Please seek independent advice on your tax arrangements.

- Minimum fundraising targets and banking deadlines

Each participant must exceed their minimum fundraising target in order to participate in the event. Participants who have not banked sufficient funds to exceed their target, or who cannot provide proof that sufficient funds have been secured (eg via matching gift programs) will not be allowed to participate.

- To ensure all participants fundraise in a timely manner JDRF has implemented a first target banking deadline.

All participants are requested to have banked a minimum $1,000 against their individual account (excludes matching gifts and team fundraising) by 1 February 2020. This will allow JDRF to proceed with booking accommodation and meals at best possible prices. Participants who register close to or after this date are asked to bank $1,000 as soon as possible in order to secure accommodation.

- JDRF cannot confirm meals and/or accommodation for participants who have not banked fundraising as per the fundraising guidelines listed below:

- Fundraising Deadline #1: 1 February: $1,000
- Fundraising Deadline #2: 1 April: $4,000

- Rider Cancellation Policy

JDRF is bound by contracts with several different organisations to make this event possible. This means that JDRF must provide guarantees by certain deadlines, resulting in established costs that must be covered. A Rider Cancellation Policy has been established to ensure that these obligations are met. The schedule below details the fee that will be charged by JDRF if a Rider cancels their own participation from the event. (The amount charged on the cancelling participant's credit card will be the difference between the cancellation fee and the amount of funds banked before and including the day of cancellation).

- Cancellation Fees

- Prior to 15 December: No charge (except the non-refundable registration fee)

- 16 Dec – 1 April: $250 fee (plus the non-refundable registration fee)
- 2 April onwards: $500 fee (plus the non-refundable registration fee)

Regardless of cancellation date, all funds raised as a result of participation in the JDRF Type 1 Challenge must be remitted to JDRF.

- Type 1 Challenge Cancellation Policy

JDRF reserves the right to cancel any person's participation at any stage if, in JDRF's opinion:

- a) it is unlikely the rider will meet the minimum fundraising target; or
- b) has not met the minimum training standards to participate in an event of this nature.

Regardless of cancellation date, all funds raised as a result of participation in the Type 1 Challenge must be remitted to JDRF.
